DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to amendment filed 2/11/08.

Response to Amendment

2. Claims 1, 4, 5, 9, 24-29, 43-48 and 54 have been amended. Claims 1-5, 9-11, 16, 17, 24-29, 35, 43-48 and 54 are currently pending

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Attorney Karl L. Larson (Reg. No. 41,141) on 7/26/08.

Please amend the Application as follows:

In the Claims

Please cancel claims 6-8, 12-15, 18-23, 30-34, 36-42, 49-53 and 55-61.

Reasons for Allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
5. The claimed inventions pertain to a process and apparatus for financial management and in particular a process and apparatus for budgeting finances and maintaining an accounting system based on reverse budgeting whereby an individual tracks expenditures and revenues.

Discussion of Closest Prior Art

An exemplary prior art is discussed in office action dated 6/21/007. The prior art reference "Money matters" by Linden, Tom; Macworld v10n6 PP: 119-125 June 1993 teaches that a variety of personal financing software programs exists. Linden teaches that the software programs enable individuals to categorize and track their income, expenses. However, none of the prior art teaches a cost associated with each of a plurality of expenditures wherein the cost a total number of hours a user must spend working at a pay rate to pay for the respective expenditure during the respective period. In this regard "Tax Freedom Day" (April 12, 1993) teaches correlating the tax liability of an average American with the number of hours he or she must work to pay for all tax liability. This reference also teaches how many hours an average American works in a day to meet expenses in each category of expense.

Reasons for Allowance.

The following statement of reasons for allowance applies to claims 1-5, 9-11, 16,17, 24-29, 35, 43-48 and 54.

However Linden and Tax fails to teach, suggest or render obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, a method or an apparatus for maintaining an account over a plurality of periods using a reverse budget having the novel feature of revising one or more budget amount of one or more of a plurality of categories and one or more of a plurality of expenditures of at least one of a plurality of categories based on an account balance, the cost (representing a total number of hours a user must spend working at a pay rate to pay for the respective expenditure during a given period) associated with each of the plurality of expenditures, and a remaining balance for at least one of plurality of categories.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
